Country Club Developer Gets Approval To Clear Some Land

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Andover Country Club developer Yvon Cormier may begin cutting trees and pulling stumps in section four of that subdivision, the Planning Board decided this week, but he will have to return to the board before he may begin regrading the section.

And although they did not vote on the developer's request for approval of his definitive plan for section four — a modification of a plan previously approved — the planners indicated that they would approve the subdivision plan at their next meeting.

The planners Tuesday night voted to approve Cormier's request for a regrading permit, but restricted their approval to clearing the land only. Town staffers and the board will review that work before they will permit the developer to begin earth removal and regrading, the board indicated.

Engineer Paul Ferrante of Dana F. Perkins Associates, representing the developer, said earlier this month that Cormier would begin clearing five or six acres in section four, which is located at the end of Canterbury Street, bounded by Route 495 and Beacon Street. Clearing the trees would take about one month, Ferrante said, and regrading, another month.

Cormier has requested a modification to his subdivision plan, along with the regrading permit and a special permit for a cluster subdivision, so that he may relocate three fairways on the country club golf course in section four. Construction of house lots would not begin until the new fairways (fairways seven, eight and nine) are ready for use in about two years, according to Ferrante.

The planners have a Nov. 9 deadline for voting on the definitive subdivision plan, and a Dec. 26 deadline for voting on the special permit to cluster.

The board discussed the subdivision plan during a special meeting last week, and this week planner Russ Moran said he would be willing to approve the proposed modification because it "makes more sense" than the old plan. Moran said the new layout of house lots would allow better use of and easier access to the cluster subdivision's open space.

It was the consensus of the board that they would approve the modified plan; however, they decided not to vote on the plan until they have a list of restrictions on that approval in writing. The planners indicated that they would vote on the plan during their next meeting, scheduled for Nov. 8.

Earlier this month, several country club abutters objected to plans for section four because they said they face continuing problems with regrading in section one, located off Canterbury Street. The neighbors urged the board not to approve the new plan until sections one and two are completely loamed and seeded, to prevent further problems with blowing sand.

But Community Development and Planning Director Jonathan Gilmore explained Wednesday that in the opinion of special town counsel, the planners do not have the authority to consider problems in section one when voting on section four. That section, Gilmore said, must be considered as a "separate and discrete" plan.

Chairman Margaret Bradshaw two weeks ago noted that according to the board's subdivision rules and regulations, the developer may not leave lots exposed for more than 60 days, and must take steps to control soil erosion.

Gilmore said yesterday that that guideline would apply to the subdivision approval, rather than to approval of the regrading permit.

The planners are waiting for a traffic study on the area, which Gilmore said would be submitted to town officials by the end of this week or early next week. According to that report, he told the board, trees might need to be cleared or trimmed along Beacon Street, where the new subdivision roadway will exit, to provide better sightlines for drivers.

The engineer said he believed the land where trees might have to be trimmed is all within the subdivision.

Abutter Robert Bradway of Chandler Circle told the planners he was unhappy that they had decided to approve the regrading permit and allow the developer to "move forward with new construction" without waiting to see the traffic report. Bradway noted that the traffic report was originally requested in 1979 and was "four years overdue."

But Gilmore maintained that according to the traffic consultants, nothing in their report would give the board a basis for denying Cormier's request for approval of the modified subdivision plan.

Houghton Joins Planners

Michael Houghton of Essex Street joined the Planning Board this week, filling a vacancy left by the departure of former chairman Jerry S. Greer.

Houghton, who served briefly on the Conservation Commission before moving over to the planning board, is employed as a facilities planner for Intertel. He has served as chairman of the Design Advisory Committee, in addition to sitting on the conservation commission for three months.

The new planner was appointed to the five-member volunteer board last month by the town manager, with the selectmen's approval. The board is chaired by Margaret Bradshaw.

Houghton said he was glad to accept the manager's offer of an appointment to the planning board because he has "always been interested in planning."

Town House Topics

Trick, Treat Ends Monday At 8 O'clock

Ghoulies and ghosties, take note: Trick-or-treating in Andover will officially end at 8 o'clock Monday night.

Selectmen Chairman Gerald Silverman, noting that Halloween will be celebrated next Monday, Oct. 31, added that all trick-or-treaters should be back at home by 8 p.m. The selectmen unanimously agreed to set the early evening deadline for safety reasons.

To Replace Flags On Veteran Graves

Members of the American Legion Post 8 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Andover will meet in the Veterans' Headquarters, 9 Essex St., Andover, Sunday, Oct. 30, at 11 a.m. to replace more than 1,100 American Flags on graves of veterans interred in local cemeteries, prior to the observance of Veterans Day.

In the event of inclement weather, this activity will be postponed to the following Sunday, Nov. 6.

New Twist For Post Office Ave. Traffic

Another new twist on traffic patterns may be ahead for Elm Square: With the selectmen's approval, the town manager will study a proposal to reverse the flow of traffic on Post Office Avenue, a one-way downtown street that now runs from Main Street to Elm Street.

Manager Kenneth Mahony last week told the selectmen it might "smooth" traffic on Main Street if traffic from Post Office Avenue exited onto Main, instead of entering the narrow side street from Main. However, he added that the plan "might cause problems" on Elm Street, where Post Office Avenue currently exits.

The selectmen concluded that the idea was "worth looking into" and gave Mahony the go-ahead to consider the plan.

Census Data Is Available

The U.S. Bureau of the Census, with the help from the Town of Andover, has recently prepared "neighborhood" statistical summaries for the town.

How many people live in your neighborhood? What are their occupational and educational backgrounds? How many homes are heated by electricity?

Answers to these and other questions are available in statistics for the Town of Andover prepared under a cooperative Neighborhood Statistics Program based on the 1980 Census of Population and Housing. The data covers approximately 10 neighborhoods in the town.

For the first time statistical summaries about neighborhoods have been prepared by the Census Bureau using town-derived neighborhood boundaries. This statistical package should make it easier for citizen organizations, school organizations and resident planners to use 1980 census material.

For more information about the program, contact Jon Gilmore, Department of Community Development and Planning, 11 Essex St.

Andover AMC Meeting

George J. Hamilton of Concord, N.H., regional president of BankEast, Concord, N. H., will address the annual meeting of the Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club at the November Club, Wednesday, Nov. 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Hamilton, director of parks and recreation for the state of New Hampshire from 1971 through 1977, will discuss 'Conflict on the White Mountain National Forest,' multiple-use vs. wilderness. He will talk about the evolution of the White Mountain National Forest since its establishment under the Weeks Act of 1911 and its subsequent administration by the U. S. Forest Service. He will discuss the AMC and the role of the Hiet system during the intervening years. Hamilton will describe the variety of outdoor recreational activities and other uses of the forest leading into present conflicts between those who wish to see the large areas of the forest preserved to those who favor the continuation of multiple use of the forest resources.

Contrary to popular belief, bats are not blind, but their vision is extremely poor, thus they navigate by a kind of radar.

Memorial Gateway At Abbot Academy

Abbot Campus Has Rich History

By Marsha Rooney
Curator, Andover Historical Society

The future of the Abbot Academy buildings and grounds is again in the news. Andover citizens view the issue from several angles: the potential loss of open land; the proposed re-uses for campus building; the importance of both buildings and site as representatives of a colorful local history and as significant architectural assets within the Andover community.

Andover will grow and change in many ways during the upcoming decades. Ideally, this growth will also include appreciation for and protection of significant visual elements, both old and new, within the community. Abbot Academy is just such a significant local resource. Hopefully, its owners, as well as the Andover people, will consider this broader issue in addition to their personal economic needs or aesthetic tastes when making decisions on the academy's future.

Abbot Academy's 1982 National Register documentation reads as follows: Like Phillips Academy and the Andover Theological Seminary, Abbot Academy had a clearly defined center of campus called the "Abbot Circle." Formed by Draper Hall, Abbot Hall and McKeen Hall, the Circle was the focus of special occasions such as commencement processions, winding the Maypole, Phillips serenades and the Centennial in 1929.

Abbot Hall, the original building (1829), was erected to face School Street. In 1888 it was turned to its present site; in 1903 remodeled into a science building; and in 1905 rebuilt to contain a chapel, an observatory, an art gallery, a larger assembly hall and the science laboratories.

To be sure you are buying real gold, always look for the karat stamp, such as 14K or 18K. The karat marking tells you the proportion (amount) of pure gold in each piece of jewelry.

Twenty-four karat (24K) is 100 percent pure gold. Eighteen karat (18K) is 18 parts gold alloyed or mixed with six parts other metals; 14K is 14 parts gold alloyed with 10 parts other metals.

Now you can teach your old phone some new tricks.

When the Bell System breaks up on January 1, 1984, a whole new range of possibilities will open up.

That makes it a perfect time for you to re-evaluate your phone service. Because the same old service you've always had isn't necessarily the best for you now.

Choosing a different local calling plan could save you money. Buying phones may be more economical in the long run. And you may be able to save with the new long-distance options, too.

There are a lot of new tricks you can teach your old phone. We'll be sending you more information in upcoming bill inserts, but here's a brief rundown of some of your options now.

Local service

New England Telephone will still be your phone company for local service. But that doesn't mean your local calling plan has to be the same as everyone else's.

If you make a lot of local calls, your best bet is probably Unlimited Service, where a flat monthly fee buys you unlimited calls within your local exchange area.

However, if you don't make many local calls, Measured Service could save you money. We offer different Measured Service plans in different areas, but they all give you the same benefit: the less you call, the less you pay.

Toll calls within your own area code

New England Telephone will still provide you with this service. And give you options to help you cut your calling costs.

We offer options for people who make a lot of toll calls to the same few nearby towns. Choices for people who call a wide variety of toll exchanges. Even plans that let you make two or more hours of toll calls all around your own area code. Different options for different needs. All designed to help you save.

Long-distance calls outside your area code

After the break-up, New England Telephone will continue to give you access to long-distance service. So you can still make and receive long-distance calls. Your present long distance service will continue after January 1. Or you can choose a new long-distance company if you wish. Just check your Yellow Pages for a complete listing, compare rates and services, and make your choice.

Equipment

When it comes to choosing telephones, you have more choices than ever!

If you prefer to lease your phones, simply keep the ones we've provided. After January 1 you'll automatically be leasing them from AT&T.

Want to buy the phone you now have? Contact your New England Telephone business office and they'll tell you how.

What if you'd rather buy your telephone equipment elsewhere? Just check your Yellow Pages for a list of telephone retailers.

To change—or not to change?

The choice is yours. You don't have to make any changes if you don't want to—and you'll barely notice the break-up after January 1.

But now that you have so many different options to help you control your calling costs, it could benefit you to re-think your phone service. Because teaching old phones new tricks could mean your phone bill will take a smaller bite out of your budget.

If you have questions about the changes outlined here, call our special toll-free "Let's Talk" number. It's 1 800 555-5000. Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Or watch for more detailed information in your bill inserts.

Haunted House Promotes Halloween Safety Program

The Department of Community Services Haunted House to be held Monday, Oct. 31, at Shawsheen School from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. will promote an extra measure of safety this Halloween.

As each child leaves the Haunted House, they will be given a special Super Safety Trick-or-Treat Bag provided through Sampling Corporation of America in cooperation with the National Recreation and Park Association. The plastic bag includes safety rules and is printed on both sides with a special fluorescent ink. A child carrying this bag would be highly visible to motorists because of the bright reflection of the color. This is especially important at dusk, which is a time of day when visibility is generally poor. Each child will also get a large safety patch, with similar coloring and adhesive to be worn on the back of their outer garments or costumes for additional visibility to motorists.

The Haunted House will be filled with ghosts, goblins and ghoulish guests throughout Halloween evening. Parents should use their discretion as to age appropriateness. A small fee will be charged at the entrance.

Halloween Tips

The AAA Automobile Club of Merrimack Valley reminds motorists that extra precautions are necessary to insure the safety of little children on their trick-or-treat rounds.

Tiny ghosts, goblins and witches will have their thoughts on fun, not safety, and may be tempted to dart suddenly across streets, which means drivers will have to be especially careful.

Parents should make sure their children can see where they're going and can be seen by motorists.

Auto Club Develops Pilot Program At Voke

The problems of keeping up with the everchanging and demanding automotive repair industry are being addressed in a pilot program developed by the AAA Auto Club of Merrimack Valley and the American Automobile Association in conjunction with the Greater Lawrence Technical High School on River Road in West Andover.

AAA has named the technical school an Approved Auto Repair Training Center, the first high school training center of its kind in the country. The school's automotive shop was subjected to an inspection by AAA staff and evaluated on its operation including the equipment used, customer service, expertise, appearance and performance. The criteria is the same as used by AAA to certify auto repair facilities nationwide.

David J. Christensen, executive vice president of the Auto Club, said, "Students in the automotive curriculum will benefit from the incentives of the program. Seniors achieving special academic standards will receive a certificate from AAA which will enhance their placement in the auto-repair job market." Resumes of graduating seniors will be circulated to Approved Auto Repair facilities in the Merrimack Valley area.

Louis E. Gleason, superintendent-director of the school, stated, "I am exceptionally pleased that the school will participate in this pilot program. We feel, as the Approved Auto Repair Training Center, we will be able to contribute to the improvement of the auto repair service industry and at the same time improve the quality of the training we are able to provide. The program represents an outstanding example of what can occur when the public and private sector cooperate."

The training center will also conduct automotive clinics to provide mechanics currently working in certified shops with updated training and information.

Automobile repairs are one of the most frequent complaints of American consumers. Getting satisfactory automobile repairs is a two-fold problem. Consumers need to know what to expect from an automotive repair shop and mechanics must learn how to service customers' needs.

Creating An Exhibit Coffee Hour Subject

By Virginia Lopez Begg

Have you ever wondered what goes on behind the scenes of a museum exhibit? The Andover Historical Society invites you to find out at the first morning coffee of the 1983-84 season on Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 9:30 a.m.

"The Joys and Headaches of Collecting" will take listeners through the many-faceted process of setting up an exhibit at the society. From the efforts at deciding on a theme through the meticulous research until the day of installation, hundreds of details must be attended to.

Members of the exhibits committee, chaired by Joan Rollenhagen, will share their experiences in preparing some of the recent exhibits. Why choose this artifact over that? What information will most interest and inform observers? How can items best be displayed? Joining in the presentation will be Margery Fenton, Dorothy Tavern, Barbara Alden and Reta Buchan, committee members.

The program will also include an inside peek into the world of collecting by several of Andover's well-known collectors. Every collector has stories about "the one that got away" or what he or she found in some dusty corner. Do come and hear the tales they tell.

The public is invited to share coffee and refreshments as well as the program free of charge at the Amos Blanchard House.

The Andover Historical Society is a non-profit, educational institution open to members and public. For information on open hours, exhibitions, tours, special events and membership, call the society office Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Octoberfest

Residents of Andover Commons, 30 Railroad St., Andover, will conduct an Octoberfest Ba-

From Trivia To The Serious They Have The Answers

By Sue Aucella Deacon

They often feel like Sherlock Holmes, using their powers of deduction, their imagination and their professional expertise to track down the answer to almost any question, from the fluffy stuff of trivia quizzes to the most serious cries for help.

They're not detectives, but the reference librarians at Andover's Memorial Hall Library who staff the "Answers" telephone line seven days a week, referring callers to community resources and giving them instant access to the library's reference shelves.

Reference librarian Nan Becker, the Answers program coordinator, says the telephone reference service was born more than five years ago, when library officials "became aware of the need to fill a void."

"There has not been anyone to tie together the loose ends of all the community information available," she explains. "Answers is a way of providing that service to the community." Nan adds that Answers also lets the library "reach out to people who find it difficult to get to the library. We encourage people to use the library by phone — information is available quickly."

Answers can be reached at 470-1184, and the line is open whenever the library is: 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, and 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. ("People seem to think we're not functioning at night or on weekends," Nan notes, with most calls coming in during weekday mornings and afternoons. "We encourage more use in the evenings.") The main library number, 475-6960, will also put callers in touch with the reference desk.

Nan handles the Answers line along with everyone else on the reference staff: reference director Shirley McGrath, Leslie Baskin, Sydel Cohen, Sam Simons and Jennifer Strom. "We are all trained reference librarians, we all have master of science degrees in library science, and we are all prepared to research," the coordinator says.

Modeled after several "very successful" programs around Massachusetts (including programs in Amherst and Cambridge), Answers began with a grant from the state Board of Library Commissioners. Library officials used the funding to set up a file of some 850 community organizations throughout Greater Lawrence. Nan continually updates that file, adding new groups and weeding out defunct ones. "That is crucial," she emphasizes. "People have to know that the files are live and up-to-date."

Nan joined the library staff last December, and in January she started programming the community resource file into the library's new computer, a project that took about five months. The librarians can now tap into the computer for an immediate review of all agencies that could help a caller with a specific problem — and Answers has become a hotline for area residents in need of emergency shelter, as well as for pregnant teenagers.

The computer has also made it easier for the library to compile some of the information most frequently requested (a listing of local clubs and organizations, for example) into booklets offered free to townspeople.

The library originally publicized Answers with small stickers, designed to be attached to telephones, listing its telephone number along with police and fire department numbers. (The stickers were inserted in utility bills.) Today the Newcomers Club and Welcome Wagon steer new residents toward the service, Nan says, and Answers is also listed in a number of local informational publications. She adds that "word-of-mouth tends to be one of our strongest publicity means."

According to statistics the library keeps on the program, about 150 calls come in to Answers every month. Nan says about half the callers are seeking community information, and the other half, general reference information.

The staff is "trained in retrieving information on business, history and literature, and calls do touch on those areas. We answer such a wide variety of questions — we're not focused just on the community. There really isn't a typical caller. That's the exciting thing."

Before she can answer a caller's need, the reference librarian has to determine what the need is, Nan explains. Hers is "a listening profession. You have to be able to translate the question into the true question, and then answer the need. Often the need is hidden. And then you have to know where the information is."

Among the community information questions asked most frequently: Where can I find a babysitter, or day care? "There's a

Children's Series Continues

Edie Longo

Children can't be pushed beyond their physical abilities at any developmental level. For example, a one-year-old is not physically able to be toilet trained whereas a two-year-old can learn in two weeks, pointed out Joyce Russell, R.N., M.Ed., Lawrence General Hospital (LGH) director of education, speaking at the Mothers of Young Children Series, sponsored by LGH and Memorial Hall Library, Andover.

The series is held from 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. on Wednesdays through November 16 in the library's Children's Room.

On November 2, Edie Longo, RN, LGH education coordinator, will discuss "Fireproofing Your Future." Susan Dufour, LGH health educator, will discuss toy safety on November 9 and Jane Cahill, reading specialist, will discuss developing pre-reading skills for children on November 16.

"Adapt a baby's schedule and life style to fit your needs," Russell urged. The baby will learn that music or having the television on is natural and sleep through the sound. Infants become accustomed to noise if it is a usual part of their lives.

Socialization is important, she stressed. Children, from the time they are infants, need to be taken where they can become used to many people. "I think it's important to have children used to being held by many different people so they can see different faces," agreed one mother.

Mothers should emphasize group play as part of socialization. Start at a very young age doing things with them, Russell went on.

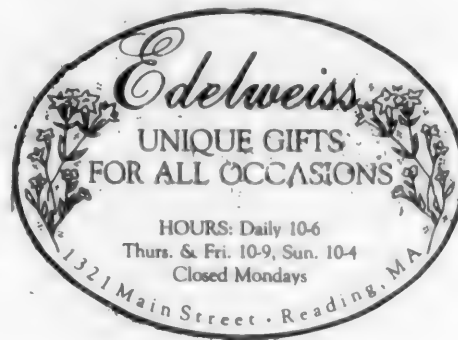

"Children need praise and love as we all do in order to have self esteem. And it is very true it is not what you say, but how you say it that people of all ages respond to," she said.

How you relate to a very young child is the foundation for later relationships, she pointed out. Important factors include consistency and communication.

"When a child gets to be seven or eight he or she begins testing. 'Jamie can do it, why can't I?' they say.

In these situations parent power, built on consistency, is important. It's not easy to communicate in these situations, but if you've done it all his or her life, you'll be able to continue to communicate," she stated.

New York state leads the nation in percentage space devoted to state parks. Much of the thanks goes to a crusade by Theodore Roosevelt, who established the national park system.

Answers

great demand for child care in the area," Nan says. The library offers lists of day care providers and older children who have taken babysitting courses (including lists in booklet form).

Depending on the season, Answers logs many calls asking for ideas on what to do with children when school's out for the summer, and where to go to pick apples in the fall. (Those two questions are so common that the answers have also been put into booklets, Nan notes.)

Answers can also tell callers where to find a nursing home, a support group for the newly divorced, help with landlord/tenant problems. "We are very careful not to give legal or medical advice," she points out. "We explain that we are not lawyers or doctors. But we can help people realize what their rights are, and refer them to a lawyer or a doctor."

The questions aren't always so grave, however. One recent caller wanted to know when butternut squash was first grown in the United States. Another asked how to twist balloons into animal shapes (Steve Martin style). A recent school project inspired call after call asking for the color of license plates from various states. And Answers receives "a lot of trivia questions," Nan says, many of them asking "who was the first person to ... ?" (Some of those questions can be "really tough," she notes.)

However frivolous a question may seem, the librarians always remember that it may be "very important to the caller," Nan says. "We don't minimize anyone's request."

When they can, the librarians look up an answer while the caller waits. But some questions are more challenging than others, and when they sense that a search is going to take a while, the librarians ask for the caller's number and call back later. They aim for accuracy before speed, Nan says.

"We wouldn't want to give an off-the-top-of-the-head response. We search for the information, and try to be as thorough as possible," she explains. "We understand that people are accustomed to getting a quick response to everything today, but it's in their best interest — the more time is taken, the better the answer will be."

The butternut squash question, for instance, led to a lengthy search by two librarians (because the call came near a change in shift, one staffer started the search and another finished it). The search began with books on the history of New England farming, and when that proved fruitless, the librarians "had to become ingenious," Nan says. They searched old cookbooks for recipes using the squash, and then confirmed for the caller that butternut squash was used during the Colonial period (they found it named as an ingredient in one of Abigail Adams' recipes).

Even if the librarians can't come up with an answer — which "doesn't happen very often," Nan says — they always refer the caller to another source ("Ask the Globe" for example). "We never leave the person at a dead end. Answers is an information and referral service — it's a matter of linking the caller to the information."

The Answers librarians don't mind that people might be calling them instead of coming to the library to do their own research, Nan says: "It used to be that the library did not advertise telephone service, and encouraged people to come in to do all their own searching. But part of modern day life is accepting the fact that people are busy, and they don't have the time. We are trained to do the searching, it is our profession. We don't resent taking the time — we gladly do it."

(The library is, however, launching a new reference service for the "serious researcher" who wishes to work in person with a librarian. For a fee, the library will make its computer capabilities available to the researcher under its new "Dialogue Search Service." The staff is "pretty excited" about the possibilities for the new program, Nan says; researchers can call the library for more information.

For Nan, the variety of questions that she fields for Answers makes her job fun. "It runs the gamut — geography, travel, literature, antiques, weather, medicine." And even the difficult questions that take a lot of "plugging along" turn out to be rewarding, she says, once she finds the answer.

Working for Answers also has its "sad moments," she adds. "We're dealing with people with serious problems. We hear some very sad human need stories from people who are in dire straits and need temporary shelter."

But "each librarian enjoys working on the Answers line," she says. "It's a wonderful job — you feel like Sherlock Holmes in a sense. It's a service we feel is very much needed. When you've helped someone and filled a need, whether it's trivia or finding housing, you feel it's worthwhile. And that certainly is a good feeling."

According to a recent survey, the top selling soup in American restaurants is vegetable soup.

Abbot

son, was built in 1890 as a dormitory, "not only a much needed and valuable addition, but an ornament to the town." (Andover Townsman). McKen Memorial Hall (1904) provided additional classroom, assembly and gymnasium space. Its construction and furnishing represented a joint effort by alumnae, students, faculty and benefactors. All was completed in time for a December 1904 lecture by Booker T. Washington. The whole town was invited, and most came.

The 1921 Merrill Memorial Gateway (McKim, Mead and White, architects) was donated by more than 300 alumnae in memory of Maria Stockbridge Merrill, head of the French department, 1878-1907.

The Grove is a wooded area behind the old abbot campus where girls could seek quiet and seclusion for contemplation. Formerly furnished with paths, benches and a Garden Remembrance, the Grove was also known as Temperance Woods because the Women's Christian Temperance Union held outings there in the 1870s.

Preservation and economics can be merged, as evident recently in numerous local preservation and rehabilitation projects: Bradlee School, Shattuck Farm, Tyer Rubber Co. (Andover Commons), and sites in Shawsheen and Marland Villages, to name a few. Significant cooperation between Andover town government and preservationists marked the above projects. It is hoped that similar sensitivity and cooperation will also mark Phillips Academy's decisions regarding the future of the Abbot Academy campus.

Assembly Begins Homecoming Week

Andover High School faculty and students announced plans for the annual Homecoming Weekend, October 28 and 29, at the "Spirit Assembly" held Monday morning in the school gym.

The faculty-senate-sponsored barbeque will open the festivities at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 28. Teachers will man the grills until 7 p.m. when they will perform in the faculty/student talent show. This first annual talent show will be held in the Collins Center and admission is free. A pep rally is scheduled from 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the school gym to encourage the Warriors to think victory when they meet Haverhill in Saturday's game.

The Homecoming football game begins at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29, when Andover hosts Haverhill at Eugene Lovely Field. Half-time activities include entertainment by Andover's Marching Band, a Homecoming parade with floats by sophomore, junior and senior classes and the coronation of the 1983 Homecoming Queen with her court in attendance.

The weekend festivities will end with the Homecoming Dance Saturday from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. A Halloween theme has been chosen, costumes optional but prizes will be awarded. Tickets will be on sale all week. All Andover High School alumni are invited.

Outing Club Has Full Fall Program

The Andover West Junior High School Outing Club began the new school year with a membership drive. After the first two weeks of school, 70 students had joined the club, which starts its 12th year of operation.

The club is a coeducational, extracurricular program to provide significant and worthwhile experiences in the out of doors.

A variety of safe, healthy and stimulating outdoor activities are offered on fall and spring weekends during the school year. The club provides transportation, tentage, kitchen equipment and instruction for these school-sponsored day and overnight trips. Each student is responsible for personal equipment.

Under the direction of Mr. Taylor, faculty advisor, and Mr. Darrin and Mr. Staples, his assistants, the club offers backpacking, birding, camping, canoeing, fishing, hiking, horseback riding, nature walks, orienteering, rock hunting and swimming.

Students, beginner or expert, who are seriously interested in becoming actively involved in the club are welcome.

The group kicked off the fall program on Saturday, Sept. 24, with a whale watch aboard the "New England Star" out of Pickering Wharf in Salem. They cruised about 15 miles out into the North Atlantic to the whale feeding grounds on Stillwagon Bank. The highlight of the day was a closeup view of a rare minke whale, who swam towards the boat and dived under its bow.

On Saturday, Oct. 1, the club took a day trip to the Apple Acres Orchard in Windham, N.H.

The trip featured a visit to a commercial orchard to pick apples, observe processing and grading procedures.

Christ Church Nursery Offers New Programs

The Christ Church Nursery School, 25 Central St., Andover, is planning some dramatic changes to its current program beginning with the 1984-85 school year. For the first time in the school's history, three year olds will be admitted. A brand new format will be introduced offering a choice of four programs: a four-day plan, Tuesday through Friday, and two three-day options, one Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and the other Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. The three and four-year-olds will have separate indoor and outdoor activities with some combined play time. The school day, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, will offer some extended day options.

The changes to the program, currently open only to four-year-olds, five days per week, were designed as the result of a year-long study and an extensive questionnaire done last spring. The board is optimistic that the new programs will provide a comprehensive nursery school format, satisfying the needs of many families in the community. The school's original philosophy of promoting a child's development in an atmosphere of loving concern will remain a priority. Children are offered stimulating activities in various areas including social, intellectual, physical and creative. The school provides both structured and free activities, free choice as well as direction.

The 1983-84 school year is successfully underway. The students are David Hun An, Sarah Anderson, Jack Berman, Greg Carlson, Beth Carriere, Michelle Dalton, Andrew Della Croce, Brian DeMartino, Joey Fontaine, Christopher Foster, Michael James, Andrew Parker, Faith Peters, Joseph Sciolla, Chrissy Tsepas, Robbie Vallee and Gordon Wade. The staff includes Jayne DeConstant, teacher-director, and Eleanor Clark, teacher; and board members Edith King, chairman; Christine Darling, secretary; Susan Witham, treasurer; Mary K. Weddle and Susan Swayze, admissions; Susan Rollfs, scholarships; Mary Lou Lowrie, equipment; Paula King, publicity; Susan Rice, hospitality; and Sarah Warren, vestry liaison.

The church-sponsored school has operated since 1969 and is non-sectarian. Scholarships and spaces for special needs children are available. There are a limited number of seats still open this year. For information or applications for either the current school year or the 1984-85 year, contact Susan Swayze or Mary K. Weddle.

Attended Education Convention

The Eastern Business Education Association is an affiliate of the National Business Education Association, representing more than 4,000 business educators from Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Canadian provinces adjacent to the eastern region.

A basic objective of EBEEA is to promote the professional growth of business education.

Sororities Resume Activities

The 1983-84 season for all three chapters of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority is in full swing. Each chapter followed tradition and opened the year with a gourmet dinner. The Preceptor Zeta chapter enjoyed French cuisine at the home of Rose White in Andover.

Preceptor Zeta members Libby Ainscow, Mary Clukey Lorraine Farrell, Joan Lockwood, Mary Plonowski, Doris Pelrine, all of Andover, and Naomi Hendricks of North Andover, attended the International Festival of Friendship, a New England-area convention in Manchester, N.H., recently. All six New England states were represented. Amy Wykes, representing headquarters in Kansas City, Miss., brought greetings. Fran DeCoster, representing the state of New Hampshire, lectured on "Women and Finance." Susan Renault, an interior decorator, spoke and Ray Barlow explained the mysteries of Sandwich glass on which he is an authority.

The New Hampshire Beta Sigma Phi chapters, Epsilon, Omega, Omicron, Xi Lambda and Xi Theta, hosted the one-day convention and a welcome party for Amy Wykes.

Preceptor Zeta officers are: Ruth Farrington, president; Ellen Foresta, vice president; Myra Sunderland, recording secretary; Michael Murphy, treasurer; and Ronnie Peltier, corresponding secretary.

Admiring the intricate needlework of Pa Ndau at Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association's membership day are, from left, Toni Pawlik, Elizabeth Savinelli and Aid Association Membership Chairman Jill McCann, all of Andover.

History Of Pa Ndau Provided Aid Group

The fascinating history of Pa Ndau, artistic needlework done by Hmong Asian refugees, and visual proof of their intricate talents via colorful display of their work was the focus of the Lawrence General Hospital (LGH) Aid Association membership day at the North Andover Country Club. Joanne Vietor of North Andover, a board member of the Aid Association, brought her samples made by Hmong people residing in Brookline.

"As a people with a semi-nomadic tradition, the Hmong are much like similar cultures who focus their display of wealth and social position upon their clothing," she explained. "Tradition is of the utmost importance to these gentle and talented people. From birth to death, hand-stitched textiles measure the passage of their lives. It is crucial for a girl of marriageable age to be proficient in this art," she said.

The surface stitchery of Hmong art is used primarily to embellish and accent applique pieces. The stitch count of a typical Hmong cross-stitch ranges from 12 stitches per square inch to 22 stitches per square inch. The patterns on the applique usually follow a geometric motif. The surface stitchery as well as borders and other additions are of tiny running, split, chain, satin, buttonhole and herringbone stitches.

Eliza Webster of Andover, president of the Aid Association, gave a brief overview of the organization which has raised many thousands of dollars for the hospital over the years as well as provided many hours of volunteer time.

Jill McCann of Andover, membership chairman, said she was gratified to welcome these women interested in Lawrence General Hospital and who wish to join the Aid Association to lend support to this important health care institution.

Renewal Weekend At Church

St. Augustine's parishioners are invited to participate in the 2x2 Weekend in St. Augustine's School Hall on Thursday, Oct. 27, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Friday, Oct. 28, from 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Sunday, Oct. 30, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Director Of Camp Is Church Guest

The Ballard Vale United Church (United Methodist Church, United Church of Christ) will have Mrs. Dandra Kelley, director of United Methodist Camp Aldersgate, North Scituate, R.I. as preacher for this Sunday's Service of the Word. Mrs. Kelley has served as the church administrator at the Central United Methodist Church, Brockton, and is a candidate for the diaconal ministry. Her special interest and expertise is in the empowering of the laity to exercise their ministry and this will be the theme of her sermon.

The Sunday service is at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Gary S. Cornell, pastor, will administer the rite of Confirmation and receive new members into the fellowship of the Ballard Vale Church. The church school meets at 10:30 a.m. The senior high youth will have a retreat at Rolling Ridge, North Andover, and the junior high fellowship will have a Halloween party and collect for UNICEF.

Combine mixed dry herbs with softened butter. Wrap well and store in refrigerator. Add a tablespoon or two to cooked vegetables or sandwiches for a gourmet touch.

The program defines the role of the laity in today's Roman Catholic Church with teachings based on the Bible and the Second Vatican Council. Further information and a complete schedule of activities are available at St. Augustine's rectory.

The 2x2 Before Him program will be conducted by its originator, the Rev. Jack McGinnis, and a team of professional lay ministers with assistance from Nina Lauzon and John Clabaux, known in the Andover area as dynamic teachers from the Word of God Ministry.

There is no charge for participation, but a free-will offering may be made at the Sunday afternoon session of the program.

Treble Chorus Of New England

Chorus At Worship Service

The Treble Chorus of New England makes its first public appearance of the 1983-84 season at South Church during the 10:30 Service of Worship on Sunday, Oct. 30.

This semi-professional children's choir has won state-wide acclaim for its unusual repertoire and beautiful tone. Under Marie Stultz, music director, the choir will sing "Lift Thine Eyes" from Elijah of Felix Mendelssohn; "Confitemini Domini" of Constantini; and "Kyrie" from the Mass in G by Franz Schubert. Michelle Geoffrion of Reading will be the featured soloist.

The choir is based at South Church as part of religious public outreach. The choir is beginning its ninth year of cultural service to the community and offers children of exceptional ability the opportunity to make serious music at a high artistic level.

The choir will offer their annual Christmas concert at Cochran Chapel on December 11 at 8 p.m. The major offering for this special concert of the holiday season will be the famous "Ceremony of Carols" by Benjamin Britten. The public is invited to both appearances of this unusual children's choir.

Work Night To Prepare For Fair

A work night will be held next Thursday at 7 p.m. by the Friendly Circle of the Andover Baptist Church to decorate the church vestry and set up tables for the Country Fair on Saturday, Nov. 5.

The fair will run from noon until 4 p.m.

Homemade and homebaked are the watch words for the items on the gift, Christmas decorations, bakery and candy tables which will be set up by Hazel Witzgall, Joyce LaRose, June Shattuck and Robin Abbott.

Barbara Woodworth, Dorothy Gordon and Vivian Guy will supervise the nearly new and white elephant tables and Carol Stocks will be in charge of the used toy and book table.

The kitchen committee will be under the direction of Edith Eastman, Norma Evans and Ruth Stocks. They will be busy on work night making the necessary preparations for the many deepdish apple pies to be served with ice cream during the Country Fair.

Jackie Gaudet and Pat Stocks, co-chairpersons of the Andover Baptist Fair, note that visitors will have the opportunity to sit down for coffee and dessert at the country decorated table in the church vestry.

Tickets are on sale for the American Repertory Theatre's classic English comedy "School for Scandal" to be staged at the J. Everett Collins Center for the Performing Arts in Andover at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 5.

This presentation is sponsored by the Andover Endowment for the Arts, Inc. and is the first of the 1983-84 subscription series offered at the Collins Center.

Blood Need Is Urgent

Faced with a recurrent severe shortage of blood, particularly in the crucial group O inventory, the American Red Cross Blood Services - Northeast Region announced that it must collect 1,000 units of group O blood over the next four days in order to maintain normal service to hospitals.

Currently, the supply of group O blood, the most commonly transfused group, is at 34 percent of optimal levels. Citing a New England-wide pattern of low collections is compounded by higher-than-usual blood distribution recently, and the Northeast Region has been unable to obtain additional blood from other regions. The situation has forced the Red Cross to limit its service to many hospitals, supplying group O blood on an emergency-only basis.

According to Red Cross Acting Director Peter L. Page, M.D., "We have not seen any dramatic recovery from the traditional low summer donations. Instead, blood donations for the month of October are off projections by 8 percent a day; if the shortage continues at the present rate, the Red Cross's inventory will all 3,000 units short of the necessary supply for hospitals by the end of October.

"Adding to our concern is the fact that we must be prepared to supply many units of blood for liver transplant patients on short notice. This means that we must have on hand, ready for transfusion, blood components from as many as 200 donors.

"At this point, we have no alternative but to appeal to the public to ensure that there's enough blood for the hundreds of patients needing blood daily region wide."

For information on donor center hours and scheduled bloodmobiles in Massachusetts, call 1-800-342-8741.

The Blood Donor Center on the grounds of Bon Secours Hospital, 70 East St., Methuen, is open Tuesday through Thursday from 1:30 to 9 p.m. and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Nursing Service Expands

Greater Lawrence Home Health Services has moved its office to 451 Andover St., North Andover. The office will serve as the headquarters from which the agency will coordinate home health care for residents of Lawrence, Andover, North Andover and Methuen.

"The number of patients we see has doubled in the last three years," explains Greater Lawrence Home Health Services Executive Director Anita Gorman. "We simply need more room."

Greater Lawrence Home Health services is staffed by more than 100 employees, who provide a wide range of home care services. The agency is known mostly for its visiting nurse program and health screening clinics aimed at patient rehabilitation and illness prevention. Greater Lawrence Home Health Services also provides long-term care for frail, elderly and chronically-ill patients to help them remain at home and hospice care for terminally-ill patients.

The new office will occupy most of the third floor and will accommodate former staff from the Hospice of Greater Lawrence who recently merged with Greater Lawrence Home Health and Nursing Services.

Last year the agency made more than 63,000 visits to almost 2,000 area residents, and according to Gorman, is in a position to increase its services this year. "Our goal is to provide comprehensive care at home for the sick and disabled. We will continue to develop our home care programs and our staff in order to achieve this end."

Energy Grant For Hospital

Lawrence General Hospital has been awarded a $28,934 grant from the U.S. Department of Energy to do a comprehensive energy audit of all heating, cooling and major electric systems at the hospital.

The purpose of the audit will be to locate specific areas where some change could help the hospital conserve energy.

Any potential energy savings would be evaluated to make sure the savings are worth the cost.

"We will apply for additional funding to carry out the best of these alternatives," commented Harold Shea, director, division of support services, who will oversee the project.

The hospital's grant was for 90 percent of the project's cost. The hospital itself will provide 10 percent or $3,214.

Diabetes Programs Offered

November, National Diabetes Month, is an appropriate time for public awareness of diabetes. At Lawrence General Hospital (LGH), Lawrence, however, diabetes education takes place 12 months of the year. A weekly four-class program complemented by a fall and spring lecture series provides education and support for diabetics and their families and friends.

Diabetes is a metabolic disorder that affects one in every 40 people. It is a serious, chronic disease for which there is no cure at present but can be controlled. An estimated five million Americans have diabetes but do not know it.

Sugar diabetes is a disease in which the pancreas, an abdominal gland, fails to secrete insulin, a hormone the body needs to process glucose. Diabetes is the number one cause of new cases of blindness in adults over the age of 45.

Symptoms of diabetes includes fatigue, thirst, frequent urination, increased appetite, weight loss, itchiness, vision problems, numbness and tingling of extremities and skin problems.

If you are diagnosed as a diabetic, how can you learn more about the disease? Your physician might refer you to the LGH education department.

LGH offers an instruction program, repeated each week, to diabetes patients. The first two classes (Tuesday and Wednesday) are taught by nurse health educator and include methods of control and insulin administration and urine testing by the patient.

The latter two classes (Thursday and Friday) are taught by LGH dietician who cover dietary planning and diabetes and adapting sample meals to a patient's likes and dislikes.

To keep informed of LGH's year-round community instructional programs of diabetes, add your name to the mailing list by calling the LGH department of education.

Fingerprint Program Considered

Andover officials are considering the possibility of setting up a voluntary fingerprint program for schoolchildren, the town manager said last week, to help parents deal with the frightening problem of missing children.

Town Manager Kenneth Mahony told the selectmen he would work with the Police Department and Superintendent Kenneth Seifert to establish the fingerprinting program, and the selectmen indicated that they supported the idea. A representative of The Mother Connection, a local parents' organization, added that that group would like to get involved with the program as well.

According to the manager, police officers would come to a different school each Saturday morning to fingerprint children. All prints would stay with parents; the police department would keep no records of the fingerprints.

Parents would be able to use the fingerprints to help identify missing children. A number of local communities have instituted fingerprinting programs for children in recent months.

Hearing On Forest Tonight

A public meeting on the development of the Harold Parker State Forest will be held at Memorial Hall Library, Elm Square, Andover, at 7:30 p.m. tonight. The meeting is co-sponsored by the Department of Environmental Management and the Harold Parker State Forest Advisory Committee to hear the community's views on the management plan being developed by DEM.

The plan is part of the department's new GOALS program (Guidelines for Operations and Land Stewardship) to ensure appropriate development and use of the state's forests and parks. The program is based on zoning DEM properties for sensitive protection of ecologically fragile areas and improved recreational use of other areas. The department is responsible for managing over a quarter of a million acres of forest and park land across the state, making it the seventh largest state park and forest system in the country.

The Harold Parker Management Plan will address issues and opportunities such as forest management and cutting, trail use, development of forest areas for recreational use, hunting, forest protection and interpretive programming.

Indian Ridge Neighbors Seek More Support From Officials

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Abutters who have been objecting to work done at the Indian Ridge Country Club believe town officials have failed to give them enough support, the neighbors told the Board of Selectmen last week.

One Strawberry Hill Road resident said the neighbors turned to the Conservation Commission to stop alleged wetlands violations at the country club, but felt that they "haven't been offered the kind of assistance we should have been offered."

The selectmen said they would like all town boards to make every effort to help residents: William Dalton said he wanted to let the conservation commission know that "we are very interested in helping citizens out." Donn Byrne added that the "primary duty" of any town board is "service to the citizen."

The town manager, however, maintained that the conservation commission has the Indian Ridge matter "under control. It is being handled appropriately."

John Thompson of Rennie Drive, speaking for a neighborhood group called Strawberry Hill Associates, explained that Indian Ridge began working on its golf course in an alleged wetlands area two years ago — and that work later caused water problems for abutters who had never had water problems in the past.

According to Thompson, the ConsComm

"did find that Indian Ridge Country Club was performing unauthorized work without a permit on wetlands." The commission filed a cease and desist order in district court, but that order was allowed to expire on Oct. 6.

Indian Ridge has petitioned the state Department of Environmental Quality Engineering to change the wetlands boundaries, Thompson said, and the matter is now "at a complete standstill" until Jan. 2, when a DEQE ruling is expected, he indicated.

Thompson said the neighbors were unhappy that they have had to pursue the case, saying, "We don't think a neighborhood association should have to try to enforce the law."

Charlotte LaPointe of Strawberry Hill Road added that the neighbors "have gone to great lengths to work with the conservation commission. We feel that all along we have really had to dig — we haven't been offered the kind of assistance we should have been offered."

Town Manager Kenneth Mahony told the selectmen there is "no appropriate action for the town to take at this point — the matter is under control. It is being handled appropriately." The manager said Indian Ridge has been asked to file a request for a conservation commission order of conditions for work it has already done on the golf course.

Town counsel has advised him that it would be "inappropriate" for the town to file suit against the country club, and that the town would probably lose the suit, Mahony added. He said that according to town engineers, nothing the country club has done would cause water problems for the abutters.

Residents also complained that the country club has dumped eight- to ten-foot high piles of leaves in the wetlands, and that noisy construction equipment starts working on the golf course as early as 5 a.m. on weekday and weekend mornings.

Selectmen Chairman Gerald Silverman said no machinery should be allowed to run before 7 a.m. during the week and 8 a.m. on weekends.

May Need Shawsheen School Soon For Educational Use

The Shawsheen School may not be quite as available for a new use as school officials thought it was a few months ago, the School Committee indicated last week.

The committee discussed reuse of the school only briefly last week, in the absence of committeeman Michael Giammusso, who has been working on reuse plans for the Shawsheen.

But after discussing projected enrollment figures for elementary students, committee members commented that they may need to use the school again sooner than they had expected last spring. Donald Robb said the committee was "less sure of the availability of the building than we were a few months ago. It looks fairly certain that at best, it will be available for a year of use."

The committee noted that with construction underway in several parts of town, new families continue to move into Andover — and many of those families can be expected to have young children. "My concern is that growth in Andover doesn't seem to follow national trends," committee member Susan Poore said. "We build in this town when other places do not."

Robb said the town may be about to see the end of declining enrollments, and possibly the beginning of an increase in enrollments.

The committee also discussed a memo from Business Manager Francis Paul, which stated that according to state Department of Education official William Curley, Andover would have to bring the Shawsheen up to code if it is re-opened as a school building. Building codes require accessibility to the handicapped.

Poore said that requirement would "not be a big stumbling block" to reopening the school next September, because the town might be able to obtain a waiver to that requirement while it works to make the school accessible to the handicapped.

The committee moved its timetable for deciding the future of the Shawsheen ahead by two weeks, while they gather more information on the need for reopening the school. That would move their target for voting on the reuse from Dec. 6 to Dec. 20. Organizations interested in leasing the school on a temporary basis have been asked to submit formal proposals by Nov. 11.

Superintendent Kenneth Seifert told the committee new school administration offices at the former East Junior High school will be ready for occupancy by Jan. 1. School officials have the choice of moving all offices to EJH at the same time, or moving one department at a time over an extended period, the superintendent said. He said that decision depends in part on the reuse of the Shawsheen.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — October 1908

The mild fall has brought forth many varieties of spring flowers. Among those found by High School students last week were, white and blue violets, dandelions, calendulas, buttercups, anemone, bluet and cinqufoil.

Among the recent additions to the Memorial Hall Library are two books of especial interest to the town. One is "Old Andover Days," by Sarah Stuart Robbins, and the other is "Industrial-Social Education," written by a former school superintendent, William A. Baldwin.

Professor Moorehead gave a very interesting talk on "The Games of the American Indians" in the lecture room Tuesday night. The talk was illustrated by about 50 slides taken from old paintings and pictures. Professor Moorehead described all of the most important games of the various tribes in North America; but perhaps the most interesting were the descriptions of the ball game of the aborigines which gradually developed into the modern scientific baseball.

50 Years Ago — October 1933

A warning that speeders in Andover would receive higher fines than five dollars if speeding here continues was handed down in District Court Tuesday morning by Judge Frederic N. Chandler when two offenders were arraigned. Several other speeders have been fined in the court recently.

Highways in this section, especially the bypasses and thoroughfares over which the heaviest traffic now travels, will in the future be more carefully patrolled by the blue uniformed officers of the state constabulary, it became apparent this week when it was learned that the transfer of the barracks of the state police at Reading is to be made either to Andover or North Andover.

Andover has at last found four young men to place in the ranks of the Civilian Conservation Corps workers at the Harold Parker State Forest. Two more have been sent to South Boston for examination prior to being assigned to some other camp. This fills Andover's quota.

25 Years Ago — October 1958

Looks like there'll be no temporary bridge over the Shawsheen River in Ballardvale. Board of Public Works Secretary Albert Cole, Jr. said state engineers during a conference Tuesday, turned thumbs down on any proposal to build a temporary structure over the river while the present bridge is being reconstructed. This project may take four months, the state has estimated.

Off-street parking behind the stores on the west side of Main street probably will be a reality by late November. Bids on enclosing Rogers Brook in the immediate parking area will be set this weekend, according to Trade Board President George Lister. New life was breathed into the parking picture Monday night, when the Selectmen and Finance Committee agreed to put up a maximum of $10,000 toward development of the parking site.

The Shawsheen Village Improvement Association has asked the Selectmen to have the Village posted at no more than two-hour parking and to set up a committee to find solutions to the traffic problems. The Village residents said trafffic has become a tremendous problem, with speed also a dangerous factor.

10 Years Ago — October 1973

Avid conservationist Harold R. Rafton Tuesday night charged that a 100-foot "conservation strip" of land between the proposed Hewlett-Packard plant and the Merrimack River is not enough for the Town of Andover. He urged the Board of Selectmen not to sign a contract with Arkwright-Boston that would deed the strip to the town, and charged that the Selectmen had "not gone after enough."

The National Chairman of the Republican party will speak at Phillips Academy Friday evening in an address open to the general public. George Bush, former Ambassador to the United Nations and member of President Nixon's Cabinet, will address students and guests of Phillips Academy Friday at 8:15 p.m. in George Washington Hall. "The State of the Political Party System in the United States Today" will be the title of his address.

The issue of special constables was put to rest by the Board of Selectmen Tuesday night with little ado, and the board once again postponed, "until a specific need arises," establishing of an Industrial Development Finance Authority. At their last meeting, the selectmen had questioned the town's liability naming Phillips Academy security guards as special constables so they could direct traffic on South Main Street. The town counsel has ruled that the academy would be liable for the acts of those special constables, not the town.

JACK ANDERSON AND JOE SPEAR

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Christmas comes on Sept. 30 for Pentagon spendthriftsBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — For contractors and suppliers who do business with the Pentagon, Christmas comes in September. That's the last month of the fiscal year and Defense Department officials, fearful of having to turn back a single penny of their yearly allocation, furiously spend billions.

This year, according to our sources, the Pentagon brass spent some $4 billion on Sept. 30, the last day of the fiscal year. Congressional investigators are currently studying this careless spending binge. The figures for fiscal 1983 have not yet been fully compiled, but an examination of the Pentagon's 1982 year-end spending spree has been completed. Among the disclosures in a report assembled by House Appropriations Committee investigators are these:

— Navy officials ordered 57,600 softballs on Sept. 30, 1982 "simply because funds were available."

— One Army unit bought 14 months' worth of paper supplies even though its stationery closets were already stuffed with enough materials to last 19 months.

— Another Army unit "ordered ice cube makers, ice storage bins and video cassette players that they didn't need delivery on for over a year even though these types of items are available immediately off the shelf from commercial sources at the time the item is required."

— Air Force officials at one command unit spent $2.9 million for new furniture when the furniture already in use could have been repaired for $1.1 million.

— At Fort Rucker, Ala., and Ft. Bragg, N.C., new dental chairs and operating units were purchased for $84,000 when existing equipment could have been repaired for $3,000.

— Officials at the Ft. Meade, Md., dental clinic "bought 28 new dental operating stools at a cost of $8,400 and at the same time got rid of 37 dental operating stools" that were "new or like new."

Footnote: Rep. Norman Dicks, D-Wash., is attempting to recover a portion of the foolishly spent funds by withholding a small percentage of the Defense Department's next budget.

UNDIPLOMATIC DISCRIMINATION: The old-boy network at the State Department is trying to hush up a sex scandal of sorts. It involves systematic discrimination against women applicants for jobs in the Foreign Service.

Disappointed women applicants filed a class-action suit and the department has quietly agreed to settle out of court. State Department officials have agreed to contact 35,000 female job seekers and invite them to try again for the diplomatic careers they wanted.

Even if the rejected women job seekers are still interested and a fair number are hired, it is unlikely to change the basic situation. At the higher levels, the State Department still operates much like an exclusive gentleman's club. When it comes to promotions and assignments to the more desirable posts, no women need apply.

The goal of every Foreign Service officer is to become an ambassador, but very few women make it. On the rare occasion when a woman is named an ambassador, she is usually a political appointee not a career diplomat. And she is usually given an embassy in a country that is not considered "important" enough to merit a male ambassador.

The same men-only attitude also prevails in promotions to policy-shaping positions in the State Department. Women are traditionally assigned to routine "housekeeping" chores in personnel and consular offices. They rarely get on the escalator that leads to the important, decision-making jobs.

DE LOREAN'S TRIAL:

The newspapers in coming weeks will be headlining news of John DeLorean's trial. He is the producer of a futuristic stainless steel car who is accused of trying to rescue his company from financial ruin by selling 220 pounds of cocaine. The buyers turned out to be federal agents.

DeLorean is clearly in deep trouble, but there is a hitch in the government's case against him. The prosecution's own court documents reveal that the federal agents' first conversations with DeLorean were not recorded.

This is important, because the government claims that DeLorean made the first overture to a man who turned out to be a government informant. DeLorean insists that the government's tipster made the first move, and that narcotics weren't even mentioned.

Expect DeLorean to zero in on the unrecorded conversations. He hopes to prove he was entrapped.

CONFIDENTIAL FILE: Intelligence sources say the Soviet Union is building up its forces on a military base located on a Red Sea island off the coast of Ethiopia. According to the CIA's count, 56 Soviet ships docked at the facility during the first half of 1983.

— Many experts believe that the United States' problems with Iran will be resolved when the 84-year-old Ayatollah Khomeini passes away. But the CIA has observed that Khomeini has a brother 15 years his senior who's still going strong. Barring disease or assassination, in short, the ayatollah could be around to usher in the new century.

Aside from color scheme, overall style is the most important aspect in decorating a bathroom. Once a period has been established for the rest of the house, the bathroom can follow suit. Simply because it is a mechanical room, a bathroom does not have to be streamlined and contemporary. Each component of the bath, except for fixtures, comes in a wide variety of period styles. The fixtures can be chosen in a color appropriate to the desired period. For instance a traditional look can be achieved with paneled walls, matching cabinetry and terra cotta quarry tile on the floor and counters.

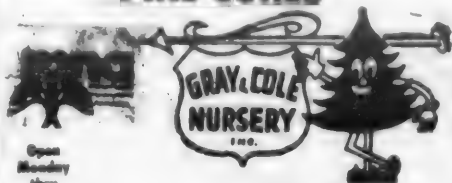

There are many interesting ways to make even the smallest bathroom into a luxurious, restful haven. Our staff here at WINDSOR KITCHENS will be glad to discuss any bathroom remodeling needs with you. We invite you to call 372-3444 or stop in Mon-Thurs 9-5:30, Fri 9-8, Sat 9-4, eves by appt. and see us here in Ward Hill on Rte. 125 a half mile north of Western Electric. We offer individuality of each design.

Stabile, Vickers Pace Warrior Win

By Rick Harrison

Andover High football coach Dick Collins was more than a little apprehensive prior to last Saturday's Merrimack Valley conference game against Wilmington at the Wildcats' field.

The Golden Warriors were coming off their only loss of the season, a tough 7-0 setback to Methuen, and even after 25 years Collins knows how difficult it is to judge the intensity level of high school athletes.

"The Methuen game is always such an emotional thing," explained Collins, "and sometimes the following week we don't play particularly well."

Andover didn't exactly overpower Wilmington last weekend, but the Warriors did parlay Bob Stabile's sixth touchdown of the season and an opportunistic defense led by Billy Vickers (two interceptions) into a well-earned 7-0 victory to spoil the Wildcats' Homecoming Day.

It may have been a costly triumph, however, as Stabile limped off the field early in the third quarter with an injury to his right knee.

"He felt something pop," noted Collins, "so we had him taken to the hospital immediately."

The prognosis is good and Stabile, who missed a game earlier this year with a shoulder injury, is listed as "questionable" for Saturday.

Last week's victory kept Andover in the thick of the MVC title race, 4-1-1 with four games left. AHS trails undefeated Dracut (6-0-0), a team they play a week from Saturday, Methuen (5-1-0) and Chelmsford (5-1-0). Central Catholic remains in the picture with a 4-2-0 record.

This Saturday the Golden Warriors host a struggling Haverhill squad (1-5-0) for the annual Homecoming Game, the kickoff scheduled for 1:30 p.m. at Lovely Field.

Halftime activities will include the parading of class floats and the crowning of the 1983 Homecoming Queen.

Praises Vickers

"Overall this was probably our poorest game defensively, and yet we came up with our first shutout," observed Collins with a shrug. "But, when the chips were down, when our backs were against the wall, our kids played tough."

"Billy Vickers was the difference in the game. He made four great defensive plays, intercepting two passes (one at the AHS 10 in the final minute) and batting away two others."

"Mark Nardone's punting was also a big factor once again," added Collins, pointing to a 42.3 average and a clutch 49-yarder from his own endzone under heavy late-game pressure.

"Wilmington deserves a lot of credit. That's a scrappy football club. They're small, but they execute extremely well."

Andover Girls Top Billerica

Goalie Deanne Gianelly was the key in the Andover High girls' soccer 3-0 win over Billerica Monday. She was the defensive star of the game with seven saves. Andover's first goal was scored in the second quarter by Torrie Fitzpatrick unassisted. Joanne Martin centered a pass in the third quarter which Fitzpatrick booted in for her second goal. Lisa Marcella scored the third goal assisted.

Andover dominated at Newburyport, winning 8-0. J.V. Captain Betsy Murphy, playing in her second varsity game, scored her second varsity goal on a pass from Alyssa McCabe. Suzanne Curley scored two goals, assisted by Michelle Poisson and Marcella. Fitzpatrick scored two goals from Mary Oppel and Aimee Ross. Devra Weisman scored on a corner kick and Oppel and Nicole Durant each scored unassisted. Debbie Cookson, up from J.V., played solid defense.

Ipswich lost 4-0 at Andover Friday. Kathy Neaves broke an old record, set by Karen Hardock, booting her 11th career assist to Oppel for the first goal. Marcella scored the second goal from Ross. In the third quarter, Neaves scored, assisted by Fitzpatrick, and Fitzpatrick scored, assisted by Curley. Gianelly had six saves in goal for her seventh shutout of the season.

Feeding Baby

The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that infants consume no more than one quart of formula per day. If your baby regularly consumes a quart or more of formula per day, and still shows signs of hunger, it could be time to introduce baby foods to fulfill increased caloric needs.

Iron-fortified infant cereals usually are the first baby foods introduced. They mix well with mother's milk or formula and provide vitamins, protein and calories to satisfy baby's hunger. Cereals may also be prepared with strained fruit juices. The vitamin C in the fruit juice helps the baby's body absorb the iron in the cereal.

Colts Hand Dolphins First Loss

The first-place Dolphins lost their first game of the season 13-6 to a "fired up" Colts' squad and the defending champion Vikings beat the Redskins 7-0. The Vikings also won the suspended game against the Redskins by a 6-0 score.

The Dolphins took a quick 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a six-yard burst up the middle by quarterback Louis LoPresti. The Colts stopped the P.A.T. attempt and from there on it as all Colts. Halfback Scott Wallace got the first score when he raced 50 yards down the left sideline. Quarterback Steve Surette ran it in for the extra point to put the Colts ahead 7-6 at the half.

The real key to the Colts' victory was the inspired play of their B team in the third quarter. Although they didn't put any points on the scoreboard, they moved the ball well and their defense held the potent Dolphins' B team scoreless for the first time this year. The only score in the fourth quarter was a game-clinching 35-yard touchdown scamper by Colt halfback Ryan Murphy. Brian Donellan threw the devastating block which sprung Ryan loose.

The Colt defense as sparked by the play of Kyle Murphy, Eric Cutler, Glenn Farnham, Keith Abernathy, Steve Conchiglia and Jeff Hurley. Jeff Manning had a timely quarterback sack late in the game. Offensively, Joshua Yezerski, Eric Guzowski and Peter Reming had good games as did Robert Morris who was on the receiving end of Billy Batchelder's pass at a crucial point in the game.

The Dolphins had fine performances by Tim Haarman, Steven Hanley, Matt Cinelli, Rob Finneran, Louis LoPresti and John Skillings.

Prior to the regularly scheduled game between the Vikings and the Redskins, they had to finish a suspended game from early in the season and the Vikings won 6-0 on a do-or-die 15-yard pass play from Steve Howes to Doug Bruk.

In the regularly scheduled game, Howes had the only points of the game as he took a screen pass 60 yards for the touchdown and then ran for the extra point as the Vikings won 7-0.

Playing well for the Redskins were Dave Edwards, Sean Kyan, Peter Cookson, Andy Peck, Doug Howes and Chris McNally on offense and Eric Greenstein, Stefan Kelley, Sean Veasey and Paul DeMarco on defense.

This Sunday, the final week of the season, the Colts will play the Redskins in the first game and the final game between the Vikings and the Dolphins will decide the league championship.

Because of increased interest, the league will include a 10-12 year old girls' division for the first time.

The boys' division will include play in the Junior (8-9 years), Intermediate Gold and Blue (10-12 years) and Senior (13-15 years) division.

Gridders

The Wildcats (3-3-0), whose previous two losses were tough ones to Dracut (8-7) and Central (12-0), dominated virtually every statistic except the one that counts on the scoreboard.

The Wildcats led in first downs (16-9), yards rushing (194-112), yards passing (80-64), total yardage from scrimmage (274-176), scrimmage plays (59-46) and time of possession (23:48 to 16:12).

But, in addition to Vickers' fourth and fifth interceptions of the year and Mike Gibson's third fumble recovery in three weeks, Wilmington self-destructed with 60 yards in penalties.

"We put together some great drives from 20 to 20," offered Wilmington Head Coach Ed Harrison. "But the penalties killed us. We haven't had three holding calls all season and we had three in this game alone. Once we got in close we beat ourselves."

"I give plenty of credit to their defensive secondary, too. They have some excellent athletes back there, very quick kids, and they came up with the big plays."

"Stabile is a tougher runner than we thought. He's very hard to bring down, and several times we gave him real good pops and he just bounced off."

"Our defense was also overpursuing on many of the plays, enabling him (Stabile) to cut back across the grain and pick up some good yardage."

Stabile gained 64 yards rushing in 11 carries before being forced to leave and now boasts 337 yards and 36 points in 4½ games played.

Wildcats Control

Wilmington dominated the first quarter, picking up 89 yards and six first downs while limiting Andover to one series of downs (four plays) and nine yards net.

The first Wildcats' march, following the opening kickoff, featured some fine runs by sophomore Tony Cutone (87 yards in 17 carries) and Tri-Capt. Paul Caizzi.

However, Vickers ended the drive with his first interception, picking off a Dean Athanasia pass at the Andover 28 and returning it to midfield.

The Golden Warriors' only gain of the first quarter came on a nine-yard pass from Ralph Dellatto to Stabile and Nardone's subsequent 35-yard punt rolled dead at the Wilmington seven.

Wilmington proceeded to march to the Andover 39 in 13 plays, the keys a 12-yard sprint by Caizzi (11 carries for 41 yards), a 19-yard pass from Athanasia to Chris Cormier, a 12-yard run by Cutone and a scrambling 16-yard scamper by Athanasia out of the shotgun formation.

Ian Dowe, Mike Gibson and Grant VanAken blunted the drive on the final play of the opening period, sacking Athanasia for a seven-yard loss, and moments later Brian Moon punted the ball away.

Touchdown Drive

The Warriors took control at their own 20-yard line and proceeded to engineer one of their crispest and most immaculate scoring drives of the season.

It took 12 plays to move the 80 yards, Stabile carrying six times for 41 yards, Pete Comeau three times for 21 yards and Dellatto once for seven yards.

Alternate quarterback Chris Scarpa also zipped an 11-yard pass to senior wide receiver Mark

Grams, who made three catches in the game covering 43 yards.

Grams' grab brought the ball to the Wilmington five, and two plays later, Stabile knifed over for his sixth TD and 36th point of the season.

Senior placekicker Charlie Ziegenbein boomed the extra point through the uprights, his 20th consecutive conversion including 9-for-9 this all.

The touchdown came at 5:15 of the second quarter and it proved to be the only points of the game.

Wilmington took Craig Hammond's ensuing kick-off and produced its most serious threat of the game, Cormier returning the ball to the Cats' 35 before being leveled by special teams' member Shane Smith.

Athanasia raced 20 yards on a keeper, Cutone ripped off a 19-yard gain, and a 17-yard aerial from Athanasia to Steve Raso brought the ball to the Andover 10.

Athanasia then swept the left side to the five and, as he was being hauled down, he shoveled the ball forward to Cormier who banged into the endzone.

Athanasia's maneuver was correctly ruled an illegal forward pass, however, nullifying the apparent touchdown and bringing the ball back to the 10-yard line.

Cutone ran four yards to the six, but on fourth-and-2 Athanasia tried to sweep the right side and tripped over one of his own blockers.

Wilmington surrendered on downs with 1:22 left in the half, and the Golden Warriors escaped the shadow of their own goalline with a 10-yard burst by Stabile, three yard run by Nardone and 17-yard pass from Dellatto to Grams.

Trading Threats

The rivals traded threats throughout the second half, the more serious bids by Wilmington.

Andover had a modest drive to open the third quarter, following the legwork of Stabile and Comeau to the Wilmington 36 before stalling.

A 15-yard roughing-the-passer penalty also helped, with Scarpa being mauled as he released a long bomb that Grams juggled briefly in traffic at the Wildcats' 18-yard line.

This was also the series in which Stabile was hurt and his absence was felt both at halfback and linebacker the rest of the way.

Midway through the period Gibson pounced on a Cutone fumble at the Wilmington 23 and a 15-yard pass from Dellatto to Grams quickly moved the ball inside the 10.

Two illegal procedure penalties and an incomplete pass hurt the Warriors, but a 12-yard third down aerial from Scarpa to Larry Cuddy moved the ball back to the seven and set up a fieldgoal try by Ziegenbein.

The attempted 24-yarder never got off the round, however, as holder Glen Markey juggled a poor snap and was subsequently planted by Wilmington linebacker Jerry Sullivan at the Wildcats' 19-yard line.

Had Ziegenbein booted the three-pointer it would have been his second of the season, the first coming in the opening 17-14 win over Lawrence High.

Quarterback sacks by Co-Capt. Bill Donovan and Grant VanAken kept Wilmington pinned deep in its own territory and the teams traded punts (Nardone 44-yarder) as the third period drew to a close.

Wilmington opened the final quarter with a sustained march from its own 10-yard line to the Golden Warriors' 14, the key plays a 21-yard pass from Athanasia to Cormier, a 17-yard toss from Athanasia to Paul Bossi, an 11-yard run by Athanasia, and a personal foul penalty against Andover.

The threat fizzled after three incomplete passes, Vickers nearly intercepting in the endzone, Nardone tapping away the second toss and Athanasia firing the fourth down pass behind the receiver.

Four plays later, with 3:16 left, Nardone produced his clutch 49-yard punt from his own endzone. He barely got the kick away after a strong rush by Wilmington, but the ball bounced and rolled all the way to the Wildcats' 37-yard line.

Short runs by Athanasia, Caizzi and Cutone, along with a six-yard pass to Caizzi, moved the ball down to the Andover 23-yard line with less than one minute to play.

Athanasia then lofted a pass towards the left sideline, but Vickers tipped the ball with one hand and made the interception as he fell backwards to the turf at the Golden Warriors' 10-yard line.

Andover then ran the clock out to preserve its fourth victory.

Wrapup

"We switched to a four-man front and man-to-man pass coverage in the fourth quarter," explained Collins. "We took a calculated risk, leaving ourselves vulnerable in a few areas, but it worked. I wouldn't want to play that team man-to-man the entire game, though."

"The man-to-man coverage caught us off guard the first time they did it, but we adjusted OK and can't use that as an excuse," related WHS Coach Harrison.

"That's six cliffhangers in a row," offered Collins with a smile (Greater Lawrence actually wasn't a cliffhanger). "The Lord may have deserted us in the Methuen game, but he was back with us today."

This marked Andover's seventh straight victory over Wilmington, the Wildcats last beating AHS during their (Wilmington's) Super Bowl season of 1976.

All but one of the last seven games has been decided by a margin of one touchdown or less. Andover captured three on last-minute touchdown passes, and last year won 7-6 when a Wilmington fieldgoal attempt hit the left upright and bounced away.

Haverhill

Despite poor records in recent years, the Hillies have always given Andover a tough time and have beaten them twice before when AHS was a heavy favorite.

Quarterback Steve Blanchard, when given time to throw, is among the best in the league. Swift Cabot Lewis is a fine receiver and running backs Sean McNamara and Glenn McIntosh are also threats.

The Hillies have given three teams plenty of trouble dropping tough decisions to Wilmington (22-21), Dracut (15-6) and Lawrence High (17-12).

The Golden Warriors' remaining games are at Dracut (Nov. 5), home against Billerica (Nov. 12) and at Veterans Stadium against Central Catholic on Thanksgiving at 10 a.m.

Freshmen

Both freshman teams chalked up impressive victories last Friday, Andover West defeated St. John's Prep 22-14 in Danvers and Doherty belted Wilmington 30-8 at home.

West, idle this week, has now won three straight and is 3-1-0 overall. Doherty, which travels to Haverhill tomorrow afternoon, stands 1-2-0.

West hosts Haverhill and Doherty entertains Dracut on November 4 and conclude their 1983 seasons on Saturday, Nov. 19, with their annual intra-town battle at the Doherty field.

Quarterback John Perry, running backs Steve Redgate and Rich Bourdelais scored the West touchdowns while Bourdelais added a pair of two-point conversions.

Chris Colsia started Doherty on its romp over Wilmington with a 55-yard punt return and halfback Pete Barry rushed the conversion.

Halfback Rick Lafond then scored on a 25-yard run, halfback Steve Donovan on a five-yard burst and Barry on a 60-yard jaunt.

Fullback Troy Bloom and quarterback Colsia tackled on the two-point conversion rushes after the last two touchdowns.

Defensive standouts for Doherty were tackle Mark Needham, back Glenn Allard and end John Gangi.

Swimmers Dominate Medford

The Andover High School Golden Warrior swim team completely dominated Medford 111-58 last Friday at the Greater Lawrence Regional Technical School pool.

Triple winners Anne Koerckel, Abby Robb and Lauren Lazzaretti teamed with Michele Fox to win the 200 yard medley relay. Nicole DeMartino, Tracey Thompson, Michelle Osborne and Ann Marie Conron were third.

Freshman Anne Koerckel won the 200 yard freestyle and led a sweep with Diane Sagaser second and Cathy Smith third.

As in the last two years, the 200 yard I.M. belongs to the Golden Warrior Waves' senior co-captain Lazzaretti as she increased her undefeated string with Fox third and senior co-captain Amy Brown fifth.

The 50 yard freestyle was a stroke-for-stroke battle to the finish between seniors Abby Robb and Lisa Boudreau. Robb touched first with Boudreau second and Jennifer Cook in fourth.

Susan Gerstberger was first in the diving competition with a sectional-qualifying score. Karen Reddinton was second and Brenda Busta third.

Robb returned to capture the 100 yard butterfly in a personal best time. Cathy Smith was second in a time which qualified her for the state championships and Diane Sagaser added points for fourth place.

Brown, a double winner, took the 100 yard freestyle with Debbie Rice second and Anne Costello third.

Koerckel swam a strong 500 yard freestyle to complete her triple. Stephanie Mitchell was second and Mary Robb fifth.

Boudreau was second, Rice third and Fox fourth in the 100 yard backstroke while Lazzaretti took the victory in the 100 yard breaststroke with Thompson third and Dawn Aikman fourth.

Brown was only a stroke behind in the 400 yard freestyle when Sagaser took off and pulled even with the second Medford swimmer. Then Boudreau, with strong and powerful strokes, gained a lead and increased it to give Smith a half a pool length advantage going into the anchor leg. Smith maintained the lead to give Andover the relay victory and the meet. Jennifer Tilghman, Julie Barbagallo, Maegan Hughes and Costello were third in the relay.

The Golden Warrior Wave will travel to Haverhill tomorrow in an attempt to extend their undefeated string to 21. The meet begins at 3:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

Varsity Soccer Downs Wilmington 4-1

By She Livermore

In their first encounter with Wilmington, away, earlier in the season, the Warriors won a 2-1 victory, scoring the game-winner in the last two minutes of play. In last week's rematch at home, the Warriors played a much stronger game, resulting in a 4-1 victory.

Friday's scheduled game with Lowell was not played due to lack of referees. The game has been re-scheduled for Monday, Oct. 31.

Andover 4 - Wilmington 1

The Warriors scored in the first five minutes of the contest when Paul Hevehan passed the ball to Tri-Capt. Jim Denoncourt who made a fine shot into the net. The Warriors controlled the play and made many attempts to add to their score during the rest of the quarter, without success.

In the second quarter the Warriors' intensity appeared to diminish and Wilmington took the ball. After several attempts to penetrate the defense, Wilmington succeeded and made a shot which goalkeeper Tri-Capt. David Keene valiantly attempted to block; he dived to the side and stretched out his hands to punch the ball away, but it was travelling too fast and his excellent move was in vain.

The half ended with the score tied 1-1.

The Warriors exhibited their original spark in the third quarter and pressed the attack which resulted in three goals to give them a commanding 4-1 lead.

Zack Apgar scored the game-winner when he dribbled the ball all the way from midfield, circled around a couple of defenders and made a great shot on net.

Within minutes Hevehan scored a fine pass from the right from Scott Wilkins.

Towards the end of the quarter Glenn Livermore intercepted the ball at midfield and passed it forward to Peter Surrette, who dribbled the ball closer to the goal and then made a great shot from the left, which Hevehan directed into the net when the goalkeeper's attempt to block it, failed.

The fourth quarter was scoreless with both teams pressing. Andover held the edge, but their efforts to increase their lead were thwarted by the Wilmington defense who, on a couple of occasions, actually used their hands to get the ball away from their area.

Goalkeeper Keene, filling in for recuperating David Bartle and Brian Sheehy, did a great job in the first three quarters. JV goalie Bob Pothier took over the net in the final quarter and did not allow Wilmington to score.

Livermore, Tri-Capt. Hai Dang and Barry Tucker also played very well.

Coach Dave Amundsen felt "with the exception of the second quarter, Andover did what they have been capable of doing to most teams throughout the season. It was nice to see them come back and dominate in the last two periods and put the game out of reach before Wilmington was able to get a second breath as they did in the previous encounter.

Zack Apgar as a dominant force in midfield. In recovering from his illness, he is beginning to make his presence felt on the soccer field.

"Paul Hevehan is also becoming well known to players on the other teams as he has done an outstanding job of handling the ball on offense. This has not allowed other teams to key in on Jim Denoncourt as they have done on various occasions.

"The defense, playing without our regular goalkeepers, has done an excellent job," Amundsen stated, "But we expect the regular keepers to be healthy for the rest of the season and this should be in our favor.

"It was unfortunate not to play Friday's game with Lowell, as it will make it a difficult week at the end of the season, however, the Warriors have got to be up for it if they wish to gain a berth in the post-season play."

Division leaders Billerica and Methuen played each other last weekend and Billerica prevailed 3-0, earning them top spot. Methuen is now in second place with Andover trailing behind them by four points (Andover is one game behind due to cancellation of the Lowell game). Andover plays Methuen away in the final game of regular season play next Wednesday, game time 3 p.m.

This Saturday, during Homecoming, the Warriors will play Lawrence at 10 a.m. On Monday they travel to Lowell to play the team they fought to a 1-1 tie earlier in the season. Game time is 3 p.m.

Squirt A's Unbeaten

The Squirt A's are now 11 games into their season and have yet to lose a game. With their 1-1 tie against Burlington and 9-0 and 7-0 shutouts against Winthrop and Southern New Hampshire, the team's record stands at 9-0-2.

Goalie Brian Novelline has been outstanding, giving up only 12 goals while recording four shutouts and four one-goal games. Defensemen Brian Lane, Todd Allard, Jonathan Shine and Peter Arthur each scored at least one goal last week while playing solid defense. The A's forwards were equally effective, both as scorers and backcheckers.

Michael DiStefano, Sean Darwin and Kevin Smith provided much of the scoring punch with seven goals and four assists, while the Colin Nix, John Melillo and Christ Pothier line contributed three goals and three assists. The 1-1 tie against a tough Burlington squad saw fine play by alternates John Constantine, Jay Coburn, Jay Stella and Steven Neal.

The A's schedule promises to get tougher over the next several weeks, as they have been moved up a bracket in the Danvers League and may face the same fate in Wilmington.

Youth Hoop League Registering

The Andover Youth Basketball League will hold tryouts at the West Junior High gym on Sunday, Nov. 13, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Monday, Nov. 14, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. The first half of each evening will be for the intermediate division (10-12 years of age) and the second half will be for the senior division (13-15 years of age). No one will be cut. The tryouts are for assigning players to teams.

Named Hoop Captain At Bentley

Todd Orlando

Todd Orlando of Andover, a 6'10" senior center, has been named captain of the varsity basketball team at Bentley College.

Orlando, a three-year starter in the pivot for the Falcons, averaged 14.9 points and 9.6 rebounds a game last season while leading Bentley to an 18-9 record and a second-place regular season finish in the Northeast-8 Conference.

In the final 1982-83 NCAA Division II statistics, Orlando was ranked eighth in field goal percentage, the third straight year he was listed among the national leaders in that department. In addition, his .620 percentage was the second best in Bentley history.

He also set school records for blocked shots in a game (six, vs. St. Anselm), season (60) and career (138).

As a result of his performance last winter, Orlando was a first-team All-Northeast-8 honoree and a second-team All-New England pick.

"Todd has established himself as one of the premier division II players in the east," said Brian Hammel, now in his sixth year as head coach at his alma mater. "While we are expecting him to have an outstanding season in the pivot, we think he'll be even more valuable to the team in his role of captain."

Orlando enters his final collegiate season with 1,242 points (11th on the career scoring list) and 772 rebounds (ninth on the all-time list). The only player in Bentley history to have scored more points prior to his senior year is Hammel, a two-time All-American guard who finished his career in 1975 with a school record 1,767.

The first subway in the U.S. opened in 1897.

LIFE Group To Host Governor

Governor Michael Dukakis will be the guest of honor at a special celebration and fundraising party in Boston on Thursday evening, Nov. 10, to benefit the L.I.F.E. program, including its new Andover chapter.

The event will celebrate the start of the second decade of L.I.F.E. (Living Is For the Elderly) which operates throughout Greater Boston and is respected throughout the state for its commitment to the elderly and its accomplishments as the primary organization working to improve the lives of nursing home residents.

L.I.F.E. is a positive, results-oriented, self-help program whose goal is to help persons residing in nursing homes to retain control over their lives by helping them to assert themselves and by involving them in community-based activities. There are 10 L.I.F.E. chapters operating throughout Greater Boston. The newest chapter, which is being organized in Andover, is L.I.F.E.'s first ecumenical, community-based program. Plans call for it to be funded entirely by private sources within the local community.

Contributions to L.I.F.E. are tax deductible. Tickets for the party with Gov. Dukakis are available by writing Margaret P. Cronin, Executive Director, L.I.F.E., P.O. Box 669, Andover.

Increase In Income At Reichhold

Reichhold Chemicals, Inc. reports third quarter and nine-month net income increased to $5,548,000, or 70 cents per share, and $16,293,000 or $2.05 per share, respectively. In 1982 the company reported a third-quarter net loss of $4,378,000, or 74 cents per share and nine-month net income of $1,833,000 which resulted in a loss of five cents per share as preferred dividend requirements exceeded net income.

The third quarter of 1982 was negatively impacted by the liquidation of a German subsidiary, offset in part by a gain on the sale of the reinforced plastics division. The net effect of these transactions created a loss of approximately $5,500,000, or 80 cents per share. The 1982 nine-month income was further impacted by a net after-tax charge of $900,000, or 13 cents per share resulting from the closing of a Maleic facility.

C. Robert Powell, Reichhold chairman and chief executive officer, said the company was continuing to experience an overall increase in demand for its products. Sales of $194,711,000 for the third quarter of 1983 were 2 percent ahead of last year's $190,489,000, while 1983's nine-month sales of $567,963,000 trailed last year's $608,152,000.

Powell cited the recent acquisition of Uniroyal's thermoplastic rubber business and an agreement to purchase the Pensacola resin manufacturing facilities and hard resin business from Spencer Kellogg, a division of Textron, as further evidence of the company's continuing redeployment into higher specialty chemical lines.

The company's balance sheet remains strong as evidenced by a debt to total capitalization ratio of 24.6 percent.

Promoted To Sales Manager

Joseph F. Sciolla has been promoted to sales manager of the Boston office of Coldwell Banker Commercial Real Estate Services where he will supervise 32 salespeople, assist brokers in presentations and negotiations, administer sales training for brokers, be responsible for business development and oversee the day-to-day activities of the sales staff. "Our salespeople are aggressive, experienced, knowledgeable and they consistently take the initiative in their deal-making. This entrepreneurial sense in the office makes my job one of a supervisory nature," says Sciolla.

Prior to his promotion, Sciolla was a broker at Coldwell Banker specializing in retail leasing and investment properties. He was instrumental in a number of recent sizeable transactions, including the sale of the Dexter Building on Washington Street in downtown Boston to Strutt, Parker of London for $1.6 million; the sale of the nine-story 45 Milk St. building in Boston from New England Rare Coin Galleries, Inc. to Sunley Holdings, Ltd. for $9.6 million; and the sale of the Rockingham Plaza Mall in Salem, N.H. to Longfellow Management of Boston for $4.5 million.

A 1975 graduate of Harvard University, Sciolla played on the varsity football and baseball teams. He is a collector of antique cars and lives in Andover with his wife and two children.

Walsh Is Loaned Executive

Joseph Walsh of Andover Street, North Andover, is lending a helping hand to his community through a special program at the United Way of Massachusetts Bay.

Walsh, a management trainee at the First National Bank of Boston, has been named a Loaned Executive (LE), and for the next few months will work full time at United Way, helping corporate and community leaders design and implement fund-raising campaigns. The United Way's annual drive raises money to support 176 health and human service agencies, providing help to almost one million people throughout 86 cities and towns in eastern Massachusetts.

This year, Walsh, along with 95 other LEs will help the United Way keep administrative and fund-raising costs to a minimum. Of the $32 million the United Way hopes to raise, 88 cents of every dollar will be used to support human services.

Agencies benefiting from these funds provide a wide variety of health and human services. A few of the United Way's agencies are Associated Day Care Services of Metropolitan Boston, Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Mass. Association for the Blind and the Salvation Army.

Upon completion of the campaign on November 22, Walsh will return to the Bank of Boston, having helped his community and himself since he will have become a more skillful communicator.

EXTRAS AND YOUR LIFESTYLE

When many people look for a home, they search for things they think they need. These are usually features they have seen in homes of friends, relatives, neighbors, and business associates. Most of these items and innovations are of an unusual or dazzling nature. Some are decorative and some are practical, but they're all eye-catching enough to make people sit up and take notice.

For example, people will come in and excitedly describe all the things they absolutely MUST have. These may include huge planter-room dividers; a balcony; built-in aquarium; or a triple-sided fireplace! They also want a spiral staircase, living room fountains, an interior rock garden, and draped entrances. There's nothing wrong with these features.

Taken singly, they can do a lot to enhance a home and make it distinctive. But if they were ALL put into one home, the end result might be somewhat shocking!

It's a good idea to look around and see what other people have in their homes. But when it comes to those extra, unusual features, a family should temper their desires and choose only what they really need to fit THEIR lifestyle!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Gould Road Plan Approved

The Planning Board approved definitive plans for an eight-lot subdivision off Gould Road near the North Reading line this week, with the restriction that heavy construction equipment will be banned from Gould Road during peak traffic hours.

Planner Russ Moran, noting that abutters of the proposed Wedgewood subdivision were concerned about additional traffic on Gould Road, said the subdivision's potential traffic impact was not great enough for the board to deny the plan. But he said he would like to somehow address the neighbor's traffic concerns.

Moran proposed banning heavy construction equipment from Gould Road between 7 and 9 a.m. and after 4 p.m. on weekdays, when the road is most heavily traveled.

Community Development and Planning Director Jonathan Gilmore commented that a number of proposed subdivision plans have alarmed neighbors who fear their streets cannot support more traffic; he said a capital improvement program for Andover's roadways is needed.

Chairman Margaret Bradshaw agreed, suggesting that the problem calls for a "town master study" on where road improvements are most needed. The planners indicated that they would like to meet with town engineer John Avery to put together a list of top candidates for road improvements — and noted that Gould Road was likely to be high on that list.

Earlier Tuesday night the planners reviewed preliminary plans for Jenkins Estates, a 16-lot cluster subdivision proposed for the Jenkins Road area, near the North Andover line. The subdivision would be located on a 22.9-acre site, with nine acres of open space, in a Single Residence C zone.

Engineer Dennis Hamel, representing developer Rosnoe Construction of Burlington, said the developer would provide water service to the site by tying into water lines on Olympia Way. The subdivision would have septic systems, he said.

Hamel said the site would drain toward existing wetlands and then into the Skug River; he indicated that it would not effect abutters' property.

But Richard Buba of Jenkins Road said the subdivision could cause drainage problems in the area, where he said the water table is "quite high." Buba added that the cluster development would also change the "quality of life" in the area, which he said includes mostly large house lots.

Also this week, the planners granted the developer of a proposed River Road industrial subdivision, Riverside Park, an extension to Nov. 9 on preliminary plans for that development.

Conflict Case Is Terminated

In granting Respondents' Motion for Summary Decision, the State Ethics Commission terminated proceedings against Michael W.C. Emerson of Winthrop, an engineering consultant, and John Greeley of Andover, former City of Lawrence water registrar and former administrative assistant to a Lawrence alderman. The commission had charged that Emerson and Greeley violated the conflict of interest law when Greeley twice used Emerson's corporate credit card to pay for personal expenses at a time when they were having official dealings in connection with Lawrence city contracts. According to the Ruling, a three-year statute of limitations applies and bars enforcement action in this matter since the alleged violations took place in November 1976 and July 1977.

Andover Municipal Guide

Supplement to:

ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

OCTOBER 27, 1983

Putting it in simplest terms, the town of Andover is a $29 million corporation with approximately 27,000 stockholders entitled to the services provided.

To operate such a corporation requires the services of administrators, departments heads, boards and committees, some elected, some appointed, but all subject to the desires of the public.

This special section of the TOWNSMAN is a listing of some of the more frequently called service agencies of the town with their location and telephonenumber applicable.

The general government operations of Andover, directed by the town manager, who is supervised by the selectmen, is broken down into categories which include administration and finance, public works, community services and community development and planning. This represents a little less than half of the total costs of municipal operation, with the school department representing the remainder.

Sign of the Times in our town.

It's not just the typical yard sign you find in the front of houses for sale. This sign tells you that the owners of the property chose the real estate broker whose knowledge of your local market has resulted in an excellent record of bringing buyers and sellers together.

The sign means both the buyer and seller will be given professional attention measured against the highest standards of the industry. It means the seller has chosen the most up-to-date marketing techniques.

As a buyer and seller it means a saving of time, energy, and effort. And money.

If you're thinking of buying or selling, you know what the sign means. It's a prospect, after a talk with us. Please call for the sign.

The best deal on a new car may be not to buy one at all.

Hold on now. We're not suggesting you keep driving your old clunker till it drops.

But with the high cost of new cars these days, we are suggesting an alternative to buying.

You see, we have a special program available that could:

- Put you behind the wheel of a new car with a minimum initial cash outlay.

- Significantly reduce your monthly payments.

- Free you from the headaches of trading in cars

- Never commit you to buying a car again.

It's called the Prestige Leasing Program. And if it looks good, stop in or call. And let us show you why it may be the best way yet to drive a new car
